the time of perfect young summer,
the fulfillment of the promise of the earlier months, and with as yet no sign to remind one that its fresh young beauty will ever fade.”*

Father’s Day Activities That Are Fun For The Whole Family

TAKE A WOODWORKING CLASS: There’s something about crafting something from wood that’s so rewarding. Whether your guy is already a master carpenter or just interested in learning more about the skill, attend a local wood-working class or sign up for one online. Even if he just ends up making a footstool or chopping board, it’s a fun project and he gets to keep the fruit of his hard work as a sweet Father’s Day memory.

BUILD A MODEL: Remember the days of carefully making a miniature car, tank, rocket or other model kit? Your dad probably does, too, and would probably love to make one again. Order a kit online or head to the hobby store to find the project that suits him best. If you’ve got the time, join him in the project. After all, time spent together on Father’s Day is the best gift you can give your dad.

CREATE A MAN CAVE: Does your dad have a space all his own? If not, help him make a man cave where he can retreat to watch all his favorite shows on TV or tinker around without worrying about messing up the throw pillows. No need to have a spare room or basement, just a spot or corner where he can kick back and chill.

GO GOLFING: Dads and golf go together like, well, dads and golf. You can’t go wrong being his caddy for the day while he practices his chip shot on the fairway. Not much of a golfer? No worries, miniature golf is a blast and an activity the whole family can join in on.

PLAN A FISHING TRIP: Catching fish is usually less important than the time spent out on the water taking in the scenery and enjoying the great outdoors. Whether you nab a couple for dinner or just toss back a few beers while hanging out with your dad, you can’t go wrong taking him fishing on Father’s Day.

BUILD A BIRDHOUSE: Spend the day building a birdhouse together either from scratch or using an easy DIY kit. Along with encouraging his favorite fowl to nest nearby, the time you spend working together on the project is sure to leave you with lasting memories.

PLAY PICKLEBALL: Think tennis meets ping pong, and you’ve got the latest sports craze taking over the country. Pickleball courts are popping up everywhere, so find one near you and take Dad for a fun day out in the sun.

BUILD A FORT: Make him feel like a kid again by building a fort for Father's Day. If you're up to the task, install a shed. After all, everyone knows that sheds are really just forts for grown-ups. For a temporary solution, throw sheets and blankets over a few chairs and call it a day.

HOST A BACKYARD MOVIE NIGHT: Transform your backyard into a movie theater. Pick up an outdoor projector or rent one from a local rental store, so you can get a taste of under-the-stars viewings before you make the splurge. Once you've got everything sorted out, invite the neighbors, pop some corn and press play.

HOST FATHER'S DAY DINNER: Sometimes simple is the best way to go. For the guy who enjoys hanging out at home, make his favorite dinner or try a new Father's Day dinner recipe to shake things up. Wrap up the day by watching a dad-inspired movie or taking him out for ice cream.
