From The Mind of The Past President

I took this on May 17th, of a neighbor and her son as they raced down the double slide at our newly repaired playground. Colin tells me his people are still working to get temporary swings installed in the next few weeks, and to ultimately replace our old playground with a new one, in the next several months. Thank you, Colin, for getting us back up and running, and for putting our new playground on the fast track.
